August 4-26, 2018

A dinner party farce

Sarah is a nice Jewish girl with a problem: her parents want her married to a nice Jewish boy. She tells them she is dating a Jewish doctor and they insist on meeting him. Over the heated protests of her not-a-doctor boyfriend, she plans a dinner party and employs an escort service to send her a Jewish date-to-be. Instead, they send Bob Schroeder, an aspiring actor who agrees to perform the impersonation. Happily, he is extremely convincing in the role and Sarah's parents, and Sarah, are enraptured.

A dark, family comedy

Writer Mortimer Brewster and girl-next-door Elaine Harper are engaged. When they return home to deliver the news, Brewster finds a corpse hidden in a window seat at the home of his eccentric aunts, Abby and Martha. The spinsters have been "mercifully" poisoning lonely old gentlemen while his disturbed uncle, who believes himself to be Teddy Roosevelt, buries them in the basement. With that, and an unexpected visit by his homicidal brother, he starts to realize that his family is even crazier than he thought.

Support Community Theatre Help us with your tax-deductable donation

We are a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community theatre that has provided quality, live productions to Redlands for over 70 years. However, ticket revenue only covers the production costs of each show. Your donation can help us:

- Improve building facilities. Roof, parking lot, and HVAC are among expensive improvements we are planning.
- Increase show budgets. Elaborate costumes, amplified sound, and musicals are often cost-prohibitive.
- Develop youth programs. Help lay the ground work for the next generation of theatre performers and patrons.
